The pension office seems to be beginning for a commissioner. An office does not usually go begging, but in this case the begging is for the right kind of a man.

It is reported that President Elder Halsey expressed his willingness to be assigned to a pastorate. It is hoped this report is founded on a rock. Mr. Halsey has made trouble enough, and it is time for him to suspend belligerent operations.

Congregational ministers are being stirred by Professor Austin Phelps' late article in the Congregationalist, on future punishment. The question of future punishment should not trouble anyone who has a clear conscience and a pure heart.

The way the democratic majority is being wiped out in Utah, is illustrated by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "In suppressing polygamy and building up an efficient common school system, Utah is stamping out its big democratic majority vigorously and preparing its way for its admission to statehood."

O. T. Wright, of Racine, president of the lumber company of Benzonis, Michigan, who killed Deputy Sheriff Marshall and his assistant in July last, appeared before the court in Frankfort on Thursday and asked for a change of venue. The court declined to grant it, and a special term of court will be held to try the case. It seems that Wright will have a hard road to travel.

The cost of the state institutions for the month of September, according to the warrants drawn by the state board of supervision, was as follows:

State hospital for the insane	$12,500 34
Northern hospital for the insane	12,500 34
School for the deaf	5,000 54
School for the blind	2,000 54
Industrial school for boys	6,125 50
State prison	6,700 35
State public school	6,125 50
Total	$48,800 93

In these items are included, of course the amounts expended for new buildings as well as other improvements.

An old-fashioned Bourbon paper in Ohio raves at Stephen A. Douglas, Jr., who is just now speaking to republicans in meetings in Ohio, and calls him "a degenerate son of an illustrious sire," and declares "the Little Giant would grow over such degradation. But really, did 'the Little Giant' try to elect the old coprahed element during his last years? Had he tried he would have stood with Logan, or where his son stands to-day—Inter Ocean."

There is doubt that had Douglas lived he would have been both republican and a president. Stephen A. Douglas could not be a Bourbon any more than he could be a copperhead.

Mr. Frank P. Hastings, the United States Vice Consul General at Honolulu, who is at present on a visit to New England, writes a letter to John Boyle O'Reilly indignantly denying the charge made against the late Father Damien by some anonymous correspondent of the Congregationalist. Mr. Hastings is an upright and conscientious man who has lived twelve years in Honolulu, where he has had every opportunity to know the truth about Father Damien. There is hardly anything that is meaner than an anonymous slander, and it is hoped for decency sake that Mr. Hastings will succeed in killing him.

A funny newspaper story comes from Cleveland via Indianapolis to the effect that the—

Chicago Times has passed into the absolute individual control of the Hon. William Henry Smith, who will reorganize the editorial force with eastern men. If this is true the Times, which has been an uncertain quantity politically for some years, will henceforward be a thoroughly republican paper and probably the mouthpiece of the administration in Illinois, as both the Tribune and Inter Ocean are somewhat out of line with Harrison—or at least do not seem to enjoy his confidence—the editors of both having been disappointed in their hopes of appointment to office. Mr. Smith has been for some years the general manager of the Associated Press and under Hayes and Garfield was collector of customs at Chicago. He was secretary of state in Ohio from 1855 to 1868, being elected on the republican ticket, and was editor of a republican daily newspaper in Cincinnati some years.

To a reader of the Tribune and the Inter Ocean it does not seem that the relations between them and President Harrison are very much strained.

THE CONGREGATIONAL CONVENTION.

The convention of Congregational churches of Wisconsin which closed its forty-ninth annual meeting in Janesville on Thursday evening, was in all things a most interesting and profitable gathering. The attendance of delegates was quite large, the maximum being believed reached, and another pleasant feature connected with the convention was the deep interest the people of Janesville took in the daily sessions.

No one could visit these sessions without reaping a harvest of profit. The addresses, the papers, and the discussions, were on a practical line, in which all Christian people as well as ministers themselves, are interested, and there were some specially valuable papers and brief addresses by some of the ablest divines in the state, on questions that are of the highest importance to the churches and to society.

It is especially pleasing to remember the fact that the good people of Janesville did so much to make the late convention a success. Their kindness in opening their homes for the delegates and visitors, and the generous liberality with which they were entertained, showed Christian-like spirit that will long be cherished by every recipient of such hospitality. One cannot bestow a kindly blessing upon any one without receiving a blessing himself, and this fact will no doubt come home to every one who so graciously responded to the call of the Congregational church.

"A WISE PRESIDENT."

Under the foregoing head-line the Texas Siftings prints an editorial article in which it argues that Mr. Cleveland bestowed favors and favors upon the republicans and made his democratic friends go hungry. It also compliments President Harrison for adopting a different policy than that which made Cleveland "unpopular with many leading democrats." But here is the Siftings' article:

When Cleveland was president he bestowed almost as many favors and favors upon his enemies as he did upon his friends. He let it run almost incessantly on the weeds, while the democratic oom, being totally neglected, withered and died.

"Pa, why does God make it rain?"
"To make the corn grow, my child."
"But why does he let it rain on the weeds?"
"Go to bed, will you?"
The case against Cleveland was even stronger. He let it run almost incessantly on the weeds, while the democratic oom, being totally neglected, withered and died.

Harrison has taken warning by Cleveland, and he shows his official favors on one but true blue republicans, who consequently flourish like a green bay tree planted by the rivers of waters, while the democracy suffers much from drought.

A few democratic papers like the New York Sun and the Texas Siftings have frequently charged the defeat of Cleveland to the slowness with which he dispensed with the presidential patronage. The charge is one which cannot be supported by facts. Andrew Jackson, the originator of the spoils system, did not make more changes in proportion to the offices at his disposal, than did Mr. Cleveland.

It is an historical fact that Mr. Cleveland, notwithstanding his promise that the tenure of an office would depend upon the efficiency with which an incumbent filled it, and not whether he was a democrat or a republican, made a clean sweep for his democratic friends.

A sweep for partisan reasons more smug than was ever known before in the history of the government. A year before Mr. Cleveland finished his term of office he had filled over 2,000 of the 2,359 presidential post-offices with democrats. Out of the 62,609 fourth class postmasters, nearly 43,000 had been changed from republican to democratic in less than three years. In the great internal revenue department 84 out of the 85 collectors were removed by Cleveland. Every republican foreign minister was removed. There was a complete sweep among the collectors of customs, district attorneys, United States marshals, pension agents, territorial judges, surveyors general, Indian inspectors, naval officers of customs, special agents of the land office, and appraisers.

The sweep of republicans from office had been so complete in all particulars, notwithstanding the startling incidents connected with so many of the removals, that among democratic papers were found such display headlines as these—"Practical exclusion of republicans from employment under the national government." "Large number of republicans being bounced daily." "Only a small class of public servants protected by the Pendleton act."

It will be seen from these facts that Mr. Cleveland did not bestow many favors and favors upon republicans; and in regard to the little puff the Texas Siftings gives President Harrison, the Tribune makes this telling answer: "This puff of Harrison does not rightly apply to Chicago, where the democratic pigs remain in clover and the hungry republicans can't get the president's consent to put them out." And in regard to the changes in Wisconsin, Senator Sawyer, while in New York early this week, in answer to the question if there was any trouble in this state about federal offices, said:

None whatever. You see, it seems to be generally understood that the office-holders appointed under Mr. Cleveland shall serve out their terms. Many offices will be vacant in January. The policy of the administration is not like that of the democratic one just passed. Office-holders are not removed for offense, but for inability and without cause. I suppose Mr. Cleveland wished to permit republicans to serve out their terms, but the pressure of his party was too great for him. I think that office-holders, if it is necessary to remove them, should not go out because they are not friends to the administration.

The Injured Nun Will Recover.
EMORIA, Kan., Sept. 28.—Sister Barbara, the nun, who was assaulted by a man named Murray with a slingshot because she would not renounce her vows and marry him, is better, and the physicians say she will recover. She was able to talk to-day, and says that Murray's infatuation for her began at Terra Haute, and that he has been most persistent in his pursuit of her.

Trouble Feared at Brazil.
BRAZIL, Ind., Sept. 28.—The striking miners' mass meeting at Jumbo and No. 10 mines to induce the black legs there to quit work, proved unsuccessful. Strong opposition is encountered elsewhere. Indications point to serious trouble if the determination to close the mine is persisted in.

GONE WITH THE FUNDS.

A POLISH TREASURER OF CHICAGO MISSING.

His Disappearance From $4,000 to $12,000—A Wife Murderer and Suicide—Criminal Record.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Ignatz N. Morgenstern, until last week general secretary of the Polish National Alliance of North America, has left the city and taken with him all the funds of the order. Morgenstern was also the secretary of the Polish National Building and Loan association and the financial manager of the Zgoda, a Polish weekly paper, and acted as an agent for real estate owners and as a passage and transportation agent. It is believed that he has embezzled from the building association, the newspaper and real estate owners and passage agents. The amount of money taken away with him is variously estimated. Some say he has stolen $12,000, and others who have been victimized believe that $4,000 will make good the entire loss.

The Polish National Alliance of North America is a confederation of all Polish political and benevolent societies on this continent. Nearly fifty societies are included in the alliance and represented in the convention. These societies are assessed to pay sick benefits and endowments, and a sum of money is kept in the general treasury to defray contingent expenses. Morgenstern has been the general secretary for several years. The annual convention convened last week in Buffalo and Morgenstern was a candidate for a third term as secretary. There was vigorous opposition and several responsible Poles openly charged that Morgenstern was a swindler and had collected money for endowments on deaths that had not occurred. He was arrested to prepare a defense against the charges. On Friday, the last day of the convention, he answered by producing vouchers for the money he had collected. It is now supposed that these papers were forged.

When the matter was brought to vote Morgenstern was defeated and Constantine Malek was chosen general secretary. The ex-secretary returned to Chicago that night, and the next day went to his bank and drew out $3,116, held in trust for the Polish alliance. Not content with this, Morgenstern sold the furniture in his house, and realized on the little real estate he owned. It is supposed he gobbled what ever funds he held for the building association. He was arrested for himself and dressed for his wife and had them made up immediately. Tuesday morning he was seen on the way to the depot with his wife. A person who met him asked where he was going, and Morgenstern answered that he was not going away himself, but was escorting Mrs. Morgenstern to the Wisconsin Central depot. Wednesday the newly elected secretary called at 112 West Division street to take charge of the alliance books and discovered that his predecessor had flown. He communicated with his brother officers and it was determined to keep the matter a dead secret. Friday afternoon, however, Joseph Csuch, a former president of the alliance, went before a justice of the peace and took out a warrant for Morgenstern's arrest.

Two Polish saloon keepers are on Morgenstern's bond. They can be made to pay the money he has taken, and are financially able to do so. Alderman August J. Kowalski may be the one to suffer, since he is the treasurer of the alliance. He went on a trip and authorized Morgenstern to draw out the money in Dreyer & Co.'s bank as it might be needed.

CHASING THE TRAIN-ROBBER.

Officers Close on to the Alabama Bandits and Soon Expect to Capture Them.
MOBILE, Ala., Sept. 28.—The pursuit of the robbers who held up the train at Buckatuna, Miss., has been delayed by heavy rain, but the pursuers think they will overtake them. The parties supposed to be the robbers camped all day ten miles east of Buckatuna and moved off about three hours ahead of the Mobile & Ohio railroad pursuing party. The rains spoiled the trail and the dogs could not follow it, and the pursuers had to lay up for several hours. Other parties are chasing and trying to head off the robbers.

Shot His Wife and Hanged Himself.
BRADFORD, Pa., Sept. 28.—John H. Quinn, a well-known citizen of Mount Alto, shot his wife five times with a rifle and killed her yesterday because he suspected that she had been unduly intimate with Martin Brennan. Quinn then tried to kill Brennan, but he escaped to the woods. The murder was arrested and during the night he hanged himself in his cell with a silk handkerchief. The wife's ante-mortem statement shows that Quinn had simply put into execution a threat which he had often made.

Murdered His Rival.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 28.—Alfred Barnett and Allen Pettus, two young farmers, had a difficulty some time ago about a young woman named Carrie Black. Last night Barnett shot and killed Barnett with a rifle. Barnett was shot by Pettus. Carrie Black, upon being informed of the murder, swallowed laudanum, from the effects of which she died this morning. A posse is in pursuit of Pettus.

Train Robbers Sentenced.
SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 28.—Fisher and Nary, the men arrested for robbing the Rio Grande express at Thomson Springs, Utah, several weeks ago, were arraigned for trial Friday. Both pleaded guilty. Fisher was sentenced to the penitentiary for seven and Nary for five and one-half years.

Brutally Stabbed a Negro.
CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Oliver Wilson (colored) was quarreling with a white boy named Henry O'Brien over a ring when Harry Goodman interfered. Wilson attacked Goodman with a rock, cutting his head badly, when the boy drew a knife and stabbed the negro in the side, inflicting probably fatal wounds.

Valuable Cattle Stolen.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 28.—Thieves entered the pasture of H. M. Vail, who lives seven miles south of this city, Thursday night and stole twenty-eight head of valuable registered short horns valued at $16,000. They were driven through this city to the stock yards, where all trace of them has been lost.

They Tired of Confinement.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 28.—Six colored prisoners escaped from the county jail in this town before noon to-day. One of them knocked the keeper down, took his keys and revolver and before the alarm could be given the men were out and headed up the river.

Holzhay Still in Jail.
ISHPEMING, Mich., Sept. 28.—The report of the escape of Reimund Holzhay, the Gogebic stage and train robber, telegraphed from Bessemer Friday, is entirely untrue. Holzhay is still in Bessemer jail and there is no likelihood of his escape.

TODD'S.
"BURTON AND INDIA PALE ALBES" are acknowledged by judges to be superior to the Imported English Ale. They have the virtue of being strictly pure—nothing save malt and hops, and of the choicest quality, enters into their composition. Consequently all the nutritive tonic and restorative properties those ingredients are known to possess are found in them. Indiscreetly blended in these brands of ale—Brewery east and Milwaukee street bridge.

BIG STRIKE AT ROTTERDAM.

Dock Laborers Inaugurate a Gigantic Movement in the Dutch City.

ROTTERDAM, Sept. 28.—The strike which started among the dock laborers is spreading to other occupations. The employees of several cigar factories have joined the movement. The strikers, headed by Socialist leaders, paraded the streets this morning, and afterward attempted to prevent the loading of the steamer Holland, but the police interfered. Several of the ship-owners have resolved not to grant the increase of wages demanded by the strikers.

Mr. Tillet, one of the leaders of the recent movement in London, will probably come to Rotterdam to exercise his influence in behalf of the Dutch strikers. He has sent pickets to Harwich, the principal branch of the steamer for Rotterdam, and they have already stopped many men who were on their way to take the strikers. A committee of the Dock Laborers' Union will hold a meeting to-night to discuss the question of sending money to aid the agitators.

John Williams, a socialist, has been arrested in London on a charge of intimidating men who were bound for Rotterdam to take the places of strikers. Crowds of the strikers gathered together this afternoon and became so menacing in their demonstrations that the police dispersed them with drawn sabres. The communal guard has been called out to assist the police in preserving order.

Edison Again Honored.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—United States Minister Whitelaw Field has been requested by Minister Spuller to transmit to Thomas A. Edison a commander's cross of the Legion of Honor. Minister Spuller also sends a letter to Mr. Edison saying that the decoration has been conferred in remembrance of the latter's services to science, his visit to Paris, and his participation in the exposition, thus testifying to the indissoluble bonds which connect France and America.

Defeated the Gladstonian.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The election to fill the vacancy in the House of Commons for the Stafford division of the Conservatives caused by the acceptance of the Rt. Hon. Henry Chaplin of the office of minister of agriculture took place yesterday and resulted in the return of Mr. Chaplin, who received 4,284 votes. Mr. Francis Otter (Gladstonian), his opponent, received 3,085 votes. At the last election Mr. Chaplin was returned without opposition.

Won a Rich Prize.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—A prize of £4,000, offered by a gentleman named Osiris for the monument of the exposition, has been awarded to the builders of the machinery gallery. It will be divided as follows: M. Dutert, architect, £1,200; M. Contamin, chief engineer, £1,000; and the remainder among the engineers and workmen engaged in the construction of the building.

The Elections in Servia.

BELGRADE, Sept. 28.—The returns of the election for members of the Skupstina, so far as received, show that twenty Radicals and eleven Liberals have been elected.

A CRASH IN THE DARK

FEARFUL COLLISION ON THE NEW YORK CENTRAL.

One Section of a Passenger Train Run Into by a Section Closely Following.

Four Bodies Recovered and a Score More Believed to Be in the Wreck.

CANADAH, N. Y., Sept. 28.—A serious accident occurred on the New York Central road at 10 o'clock Friday night, two miles east of Palatine bridge.

Four lives are known to have been lost, and it is thought that many bodies will be found under the debris when the wreck is cleared away. Reports of the loss of life are estimated by many as high as fifty.

The first section of the St. Louis express which left New York at 6 o'clock had broken down, an accident having happened to the steamship, when the second section, which was composed of eight vestibule sleeping coaches, running at the rate of thirty miles an hour, dashed into it.

The first section was made up of engine, baggage, mail and express car, three passenger coaches, packed with people, one sleeper, and two private coaches. The rear private coach, the Kankakee, telescoped the Wagner car of the first section to half its distance. The only damage caused to day cars was in the smashing of windows and lamps.

The Cause a Mystery. Just how the accident happened is not yet determined. Conductor Abel of the first section says his rear brakeman was sent back, but Conductor Horth of the second section, who is badly hurt, has said that he did not see him, and the first he saw was the lights of the train.

When the crash came the correspondent was asleep in the vestibule of the second section. He awoke to find a sleeper in the car was taken. One-half of the passengers were women. They made a wild break for the doors and were deterred from jumping out into the darkness by the cooler headed passengers.

The wreck could not have occurred in a more unfavorable place. On the left, in the pitchy darkness, a fifty foot wall, was the roaring Mohawk. Not a light could be seen except those in the coaches. The lights in the sleepers had all been extinguished. The rear private coach, the Kankakee, telescoped the Wagner car of the first section to half its distance. The only damage caused to day cars was in the smashing of windows and lamps.

It was the rear heavy Wagner sleeping and private coaches that sustained the shock and saved those three passenger coaches from destruction. There were a surgeon or a doctor on the train, and it was with the greatest difficulty that the wounded passengers, including one lady, had been taken from the Wagner sleeping car.

Axos and saws were procured and willing hands set to work to cut away the sides of the telescoped cars. How many bodies, if any, are left there at this hour it is impossible to tell.

Four Bodies Recovered. The correspondent tried in vain to find the rear brakeman of the first train section, but could not find him. It was his duty as prescribed by the rules of the company to run back at least 600 yards the moment the train stops.

There is a discrepancy as to the length of the first section. Some say it was 100 feet, some say it was 120 feet. A moment had elapsed before the crash and others that they were standing there fully five minutes.

The first news to Palatine bridge was brought by the correspondent and Mr. Coleman of Hornellsville, who covered the two miles over the railway lines in less than half an hour.

The village was asleep, but Mr. Coleman, by the assistance of Officer Barrett, went from house to house awakening surgeons, who were hurried to the scene, and as vehicles could take them. Within half an hour every doctor had gone forward and found that the crash had been telegraphed to from Fond du Lac and Little Falls.

It was just by a miracle that the disaster was not rendered tenfold more terrible.

Within five minutes after the crash the most express came tearing along on the fourth track at the rate of thirty miles an hour. It was stopped just in time else it would have dashed into the debris of the wreck.

The second Atlantic express due in New York at 7:30 in the morning was halted at the station just as it was pulling out. A man just from the wreck says that they have already taken four bodies from the Wagner sleeping car.

The total number of deaths will run up to twenty-five and possibly more, as the car was full.

Five Persons Drowned in a Pond Near Fall River, Mass.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Sept. 28.—Five persons were drowned in South Watupond today by the capsizing of a row-boat. They were Louis Dubois, Mrs. Georgiana Michaud, Leah Michaud, Roseann Leveir and Natalie Dubois. Dubois is said to have been intoxicated.

Heavy Fire in Pittsburg. PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 28.—The large building of the Westinghouse Electric company, situated on Duquesne way and the Allegheny river, and almost in the heart of the city, was partially destroyed by the last night, entailing a loss of $100,000.

The building, a two-story brick, the laboratory is situated in the second story. Here the fire originated and completely gutted the third and fourth floors. Both floors were filled with fine electrical machinery, all of which is so badly injured that it will have to be replaced. The loss is fully covered by insurance. Westinghouse gives employment to about 3,000 men in this building. The work of rebuilding will be begun at once. The origin of the fire is unknown, but it is supposed to have been caused by electricity.

Trouble at a Laurel (Del.) Fire. LAUREL, Del., Sept. 28.—The large granaries, warehouses and stores on the farm of William S. Moore, on the outskirts of the town, were totally destroyed by fire last night. It is feared the shock occasioned by the loss will prove fatal to Moore and his wife, as both are aged people.

While the attention of the people was being drawn elsewhere two colored men were fired on by a mob of whites. They were detected in the act and narrowly escaped lynching. The fire is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

Big Fire at Cresco, Iowa. CRESCO, Iowa, Sept. 28.—This city was visited Thursday by a fire which burned J. B. Caward's store and all the buildings on both sides of Main street north of the court house. Twenty-two business places are in ashes. The heaviest losses are as follows: J. B. Caward, $14,000; A. H. Caward, $10,000; G. Meverson, $12,000; D. E. Smith, of the Times, $8,000; G. H. Kellogg, $1,000; M. R. Doolittle, E. Laidlaw, Mrs. Long, Banks & Son, Rutherford & Johnson, Mrs. Cole and others are also heavy losers.

At Poisonous Parsnips. SUSQUAHANNA, Pa., Sept. 28.—Last evening Mrs. William Conroy got some wild parsnips in her garden. She scraped them, to a small quantity, and gave some to her three children and to the two children of Martin Griffin. All were thrown up, and Mrs. Conroy died in a few hours. The children were saved after hard work by several physicians.

The New York Light-Weight Defeated at Los Angeles by Joe Soto.

WHEAT MUST GO UP.

This Country Likely to Be Called Upon to Increase Wheat Shipments to Europe.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 28.—According to the report prepared by the Journal of Commerce on the wheat supply and requirements, the United States will be called upon to fill the European market to the extent of 15,000,000 quarters this year.

Estimates made in England place her requirements at 15,000,000 quarters. France, 2,000,000; Belgium, Holland, and Germany, 2,000,000. Supplies are to come to the extent of 4,000,000 quarters from India, 15,000,000 quarters from the United States and 11,000,000 quarters from Russia. England has never during the last five years imported less than 15,000,000 quarters, and after producing 9,000,000 quarters in 1881 imported 15,000,000 quarters in the same year. Last year saw these imports nearly equalled, and it is probable that the estimates on her wants this year are much too low.

The average net import for ten years of wheat and flour into France is 5,500,000 quarters and wants are placed by the United States statistical agent in Europe at 6,000,000 quarters. As supplies, India shipped a fraction over 4,000,000 quarters in the last crop year, and since the beginning of the present crop year, April 1, is nearly 1,000,000 quarters below last year's movement. Chili, Argentine Republic, and Australasia have a paltry 4,000 quarters on passage to Europe. Russia shipped 13,242,000 quarters in 1888, 5,540,000 quarters in 1887, and is looked to for 11,000,000 quarters this year.

In large exporting districts in south Russia the production varies from 50 to 75 per cent of an average. The heaviest crops as reported by the government are beyond reach of railroads and may be counted as nil in international commerce. Shipments since Jan. 1 show a decrease compared with last year of 400,000 quarters, and 1887's output is not likely to be exceeded.

In summing up the report says: "With a crop of 456,000,000 bushels in 1880 we managed to export 151,000,000 bushels, notwithstanding the previous crop had been a comparative failure, yet the highest point reached by No. 2 red in our market was 97 1/2, and during the greatest portion of the year was under 90. Although we produced 488,000,000 bushels this year a considerable portion is not fit for shipment and with the crop depleted as they were at the beginning of the crop year any demand such as the present situation suggests must result in values considerably higher than the present level."

Atrocious and Yield of Minnesota Cereals. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 28.—H. Stockstrom, the State Commissioner of Statistics, has prepared a table showing the acreage and yield of the principal cereals of the State for 1889. The report places the wheat yield at 45,498,307 bushels; corn, 23,115,679 bushels; oats, 48,253,799 bushels; barley, 9,105,309 bushels; flax, 1,647,622 bushels.

There are no Happy Days.

For those who continue to rise unnecessarily at night. Nervousness, indigestion, these can constitute a triple alliance that perpetually wars against body and tranquility. Combat the triple alliance with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and will give ground and eventually fly the field. The basis of reform is the rectification of digestion, for the brain and nerve trouble is simply a reflex of the disturbance of that all important function. A wineglass before each meal of the national stomachic insures facile digestion, and a reputation of the pleasant dose before retiring promotes nerve and muscle invigorating sleep. Associated with indigestion we usually find biliousness and constipation. But together or independent of each other, these maladies are subjugated by the Bitters, which also remedies kidney trouble, rheumatism, neuralgia and malaria.

THE WASHINGTON BUDGET.

THE DAY'S NEWS AT THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Utah Commission Reports Polygamy Decreasing--Recommendations Aneant the Mormons--Gossip.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—The annual report of the Utah commission has been received by Secretary Noble. The commissioners say that their policy of appointing a majority of all election boards from among the gentiles has had the effect of decreasing the Mormon vote. Polygamy, they declare, is not practiced openly, except perhaps in remote and out of the way places, but the non-Mormon element insists that plural marriages are solemnized clandestinely and practiced secretly in the larger centers and throughout the Territory. This may or may not be true. The commission neither affirms nor denies in the absence of positive evidence. There are grounds for belief, however, that polygamy is still taught by the church as a saving ordinance, and that those who practice it are assumed a higher exaltation in heaven than those who content themselves with one wife.

Since Sept. 1, 1883, the report says, there have been 557 convictions for bigamy, adultery, fornication, and unlawful cohabitation.

The commission, in view of the present condition of the Territory as regards polygamy, says not think that Utah should be admitted as a State. Should it be, the commission says: "It would not be long before the Gentile element would be driven from the Territory and the Mormon theocracy made supreme."

The commission recommends that it be made a penal offense for any woman to enter into the marriage relation with any man knowing him to have a wife living, and other penalties for polygamous crime be increased. It also recommends that the laws with reference to the immigration of Chinese, and the importation of contract laborers and criminals, be so amended as to prevent the immigration of persons claiming that their religion justifies the crime of polygamy, and that the constitution should be amended so as to further prohibit polygamy.

JANEVILLE'S FOUNDER.

A Letter of Considerable Local Interest.

A LITTLE EARLY HISTORY

Relating to the Janes Family and the Early Settlement of Janesville.

The Gazette has received the following letter, written by Le Roy J. Gates, once a resident of Wisconsin and a pilot on the Wisconsin and Mississippi rivers, and a man who has frequently written for the leading papers under the name of "Dell Pilot." Mr. Gates is now a resident of Eureka, California. The letter is as follows:

H. F. Janes, the founder of the beautiful city of Janesville, was born in Pendleton county, Virginia, Feb. 12, 1804, and his wife, Keziah A. Talbot, in Butler county, Ohio, Aug. 9th of the same year, and they were married March 15, 1827. Mr. Janes resided on Root river, near Racine, Wis., for sometime prior to his removal to the location where Janesville now stands. Here was born John W. Janes, August 1, 1835, who claims that he was the first child born in Racine county; so claimed by his parents at the time and since without contradiction.

Early in the spring of 1836, Mr. Janes moved onto the place where Janesville now stands. Prior to which time, however, Samuel St. John and Mr. Holmes had settled below this point on Rock river; St. John on the east and Holmes on the west side. Immediately after his arrival and after having prepared a temporary abode for his family, Mr. Janes plowed a number of acres and planted it mostly to corn. Then he went up the river and made rails and rafted them down and fenced his farm. The first frame hotel (the Stevens House) was built of lumber sawed up the river and rafted down by H. F. Janes. Mr. Kimball was the first lawyer, Dr. Stoughton the first physician, Dan. Hamley the first justice of the peace, and H. F. Janes the first postmaster of Janesville. Virgil Pope and brother, Mr. Leppin, Jason Aaron and Alfred Walker, Volney Atwood and Wm. H. H. Bailey were among the early settlers of Janesville. Levi Harness was the first miller; Joseph N. Janes was the first person born in Janesville, and John W. Janes the first born in Racine county; both of whom are living in Humboldt county, California. J. W. Janes is living in Eureka, of said county, and is employed in the responsible position of watchman of our magnificent court house, costing a quarter of a million dollars, and the finest on the Pacific coast; while Joseph N. Janes is living on his farm in the School District, about twenty miles distance from Eureka and eight miles from Arcata, the latter prosperous town, being his place of business and post office.

In 1849 the California gold excitement set in motion an array of restless, energetic fortune seekers toward the golden shore of the setting sun that finds its margin at the junction with the roaring, mounding waters of the mighty Pacific. Mr. Janes, was one of those restless, investigative spirits that make up the advance guard of civilization, was naturally drawn into this westward bound array, and after six months of severe trials and hardships, and exposure to danger, with his family, reached his destination. After a period of farming in several places and some experience at mining, Mr. Janes finally settled upon the farm in the Janesville district, Humboldt county, California, February 22, 1851, where he remained to the day of his death, a respected and useful citizen.

From the following facts it will be seen that Mr. Janes was one of those restless pioneers that keep just far enough in advance of their own fruitless discoveries as to seldom participate in the pleasurable enjoyment of witnessing the rapid development of those material agencies that are burying old methods in the grave of obsolescence. Strange as it may appear, but nevertheless is a fact that the deceased from which the beautiful and progressive city of Janesville derived its name, never had seen a railroad till the sixteen mile road was built from Arcata to the extensive lumber mills on Mad river, which passed within a short distance from his house, and never had a ride on a railroad till his remains were conveyed on the cars to the cemetery, and neither had he seen a telegraph wire till the one that passed his house was built in 1855. His retirement in Humboldt county made him one of the pioneers, and as one of the society of pioneers his remains were honorably buried by this powerful organization, J. W. Janes, now 63 years old, is healthy, vigorous and weighs more than 200 pounds, and strange to say has never allowed a drop of spirituous liquors to pass his lips.

Said Women Be Allowed to Vote!

The question of female suffrage has agitated the tongues and pens of reformers for many years, and good arguments have been adduced for and against it. Many of the latter sex could vote intelligently, and many would vote as their husbands did, and give no thought to the merits of a political issue. They would all vote for Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for they know it is a boon to their sex. It is unequalled for the cure of leucorrhoea, abnormal discharges, morning sickness, and the countless ailments to which women are subject. It is the only remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, and money will be refunded. See guarantee on wrapper around bottle.

THE WEATHER.

At seven o'clock this morning the thermometer indicated 42 degrees above zero. Clear with east wind.

At one o'clock p. m. the register was 75 degrees above zero. Partly cloudy with south wind. For the corresponding hours one year ago the register was 38 and 56 degrees above zero.

Don't Shoot the Deer.

One of the deer at the Buckleton farm was scared from the enclosure by a mischievous town cur, and is at large. Hunters are requested not to shoot it.

F. M. MARZLOFF & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF LADIES' FINE SHOES.

The shoe factory of F. M. Marzloff & Co., occupying the third and fourth floors of the Jeffris & Fethers block on the upper water power, is now one of the busiest places in the city. A Gazette reporter visited the establishment this morning, and was most agreeably surprised. Everything about the factory was neat and clean, and work was being pushed forward to completion with the regularity of clock work. Over fifty hands are constantly employed in the establishment manufacturing nothing but the finest grades of ladies' shoes. All the employees taking an interest in the work in their hands. One thing the reporter noticed, and one worthy of particular mention, was the intelligent appearance of all the help employed. The young ladies even in their working clothes appearing as if at home ready for reception, while the men, many of whom are personally known to the reporter, are sober and industrious, giving the proprietors no cause for trouble arising from impetuous habits.

The reporter was shown samples of the work manufactured in this establishment, none of which would suffer in comparison with that of any other manufactory in the world. Fine leathers of many colors and styles of tanning are used by this firm, turning out shoes that would adorn the foot of a princess. Among the number were noticed samples of black oxford top; whole foxing; old pink, Brazil hid top; Xavier monnet; Blue Martel Paris. This shoe has a large trade, and it is a real beauty. Another—a front lace whole top—very stylish on Spanish arch last. A new "wakenphat" last is a splendid shoe for the street. Samples of low shoes in all colors and styles of leathers were shown as among the leading novelties manufactured in this factory. The factory has not yet been in operation quite a year, yet they have all the work they can possibly do in their present quarters. Their goods are in the market and the jobbers give them the highest place, and the line of work is now far superior to that heretofore manufactured, the proprietors claiming it to be fifty per cent. better in quality. Their trade is rapidly extending, and orders for this fine grade of shoes are coming in so fast that the proprietors are looking for more room in order to enlarge their establishment.

It is with pleasure the Gazette calls attention to this flourishing manufacturing firm, and takes pride in recommending the fine work manufactured here, sincerely believing that it is equal in quality to any in the land. A careful inspection of the shoes will convince any one of this fact.

The factory is under the personal management of the firm—Messrs. F. M. Marzloff, H. W. Rau and J. G. Metzinger. F. M. Marzloff & Co.—all three gentlemen being of German extraction, and shoe making being their business.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

MUCH INTEREST ATTACHES TO THE IMPORTANT EVENT AMONG EPISCOPALIANS.

The general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church meets at New York city on next Wednesday. There are eight delegates representing the diocese of Milwaukee as follows: Rev. Messrs. Tom Brock, of La Crosse, Boyce, of Beloit, Richardson, of Milwaukee, and Adams, of Nashotah, of the clergy and F. H. Putney, Waukegan, E. P. Brockway, of Milwaukee, J. B. Doe, of Janesville, and L. H. Morehouse, of Milwaukee, of the laity. Bishop Knight, of the Milwaukee diocese, who is now in the east, will also attend the convention.

Much interest attaches to the coming convention, because the agitation over the question of representation, in which a vital principle is involved. The question has been before the convention for some time, and been handled with the vigor characteristic of the Episcopal people. It is a conflict between the east and the west, between the old thickly settled parishes of the former and the newer, growing parishes of the latter. The main difficulty seems to be that the eastern parishes have always controlled church legislation and desire a representation which will perpetuate their advantage over the west. Not many years ago when the western dioceses were few and the number of parishioners in each comparatively small, the eastern delegates demanded a proportionate representation or one delegate for a fixed number of communicants. With the growth and development of the west, however, and its ability to meet the east upon any ground except that of wealth, the eastern people now change their position and want the mission contributions used as a basis in apportioning the delegates. It is in Philadelphia where this contention originates, and where there are a number of very wealthy parishes.

The convention will also continue work on a revision of the hymnal and prayer-book. The list of hymns which the revising committee has recommended to be stricken from the hymn book has been printed. It contains many beautiful old time pieces that church goers will regret to see retired. The session will last three weeks.

HIGHLY COMPLEMENTARY.

WORDS OF COMENDATION FOR MRS. J. E. DAY.

As the many readers of the Gazette are aware, Mrs. J. E. Day spent a large part of last summer as a student in the Eastern schools of oratory, where she received the highest endorsements and recommendations from leading Delaware teachers. Of her work in the convention held during the summer in Boston, Prof. Moses True Brown, principal of the Boston School of Oratory, and author of "The Philosophy of Expression," says: "Of the large number of representative teachers present not one showed a surer knowledge of the underlying principles of the art and I can confidently recommend her as a most thorough teacher." When it is considered
